My Friends,

While the celebration of our parish feast of Mary's Assumption in to heaven points to our ultimate goal in life, it also marks the beginning of a new year of school and parish programming. The children receive their back-to-school packets at the parish social. While there is sadness that the summer is coming to an end, there is also excitement in getting back together with friends.

It is my hope that we can share that excitement as a parish family. It will be a proud moment for us as Catholics when Pope Francis visits our country in September. His example of love and mercy is inspiring even those who have no faith. I believe this will be an important time for us to reach out and welcome people to our parish community. Once again we invite people to learn more about our faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Communities of faith that have a special ministry of welcoming are growing. We need to initiate the invitation.

In response to Pope Francis' gathering of the synod on marriage and family this October, we are gathering married couples to share faith and social time in support of their marriage. It is called the 'Cana Club' and is open to all couples in the parish. People wait until the love has gone out of their marriage that they finally seek help. By then it is too late. The Cana Club is a good way to build and deepen the sacramental bond. There are a number of resources in the diocese that include the fixing of broken relationships.

I would also like to see us make a concerted effort to create a vibrant youth ministry here at the parish. Our youth minister, Randy Kula is open to new ideas. We need our young people actively involved in the parish. I find it inspiring when they participate in the various liturgical ministries like lecturing or serving. I very much appreciate our music ministry that sings once a month at the 4:30 vigil Mass on Saturday. They will be providing the music for our parish celebration this weekend.

In these final days of summer, I ask you to reflect on your commitment to our parish life. We have so many gifts to share!
