My Friends,

This Sunday we will have our annual Fair Trade Bazaar in the Weigand Room from 9am – 1pm. Here is a good reason to go shopping without feeling guilty. The goods on display come directly from small startup co-ops that produce them. The money goes directly to the person or persons who produce the goods. There are items that include food, clothing and jewelry. Many of these producers are from the third world. The items are unique and beautiful. At the same time, you are helping people to help themselves. For more information, google ‘fair trade.’

As we begin to schedule youth events with our youth director, Randy Kula, I remind you that next Sunday we are meeting at St. Jude’s for ‘ultimate frisbee’ and an afternoon of food and fun from 1-4pm. Bring a friend.

We are also planning a Mass once a month where a group of singers and instrumentalists will lead the music. We would like to have our first one at the Saturday 4:30 Mass on Oct. 25th. We are looking for musicians and singers who would like to use their talents and participate in the group. Please call the parish office if you can help us out. The more the merrier.

During the month of October we will be focusing on our parish stewardship. It would be good to start reflecting in your prayer your response to God for all that he has given you. What is he asking of you in the way of time, talent and treasure in service of His Kingdom? The way we grow as a parish family is by getting involved. As we interact in parish ministries and activities, we get to know one another. Our Sports’ committee is sponsoring a clambake at Schuster farm on Oct. 4th. Come join the fun and make some new friends.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Helen M. Vilagi who died this week and for the consolation of her loved ones.

The Harvest for Justice ~ FAIR TRADE BAZAAR will be held in the Weigand Room after Masses this Sunday, September 28th until 1pm. Shop from vendors that work to provide a fair income to those in need. Crafts and handmade items will be available. Learn about efforts to encourage peace & justice. Support the work of the poor from around the world.

High School Youth of St. Mary & St. Jude: You are invited to an afternoon of Ultimate Frisbee & a Picnic - Sunday, Oct. 5th from 1-4pm at St. Jude [meet at the pavilion] Bring a food item to share - Hot dogs & drinks will be provided!
